Welcome

FROM DIANE

Hello,

Well, We had a wonderful time in Hawaii (it was my first time) and our daughter Ashlee's wedding turned out beautiful. Family and friends came from all over and we made lots of heartwarming memories to last a lifetime. We had not seen my oldest daughter, Maria and her husband, Joseph since 2009. Just to sit face to face in conversation and give each other a hug meant the world to me. Thank -you Maria and Joseph for traveling the distance to be with us and we love you with all our hearts.

We were in Kona, on the Big Island, as tropical storms were threatening the islands and it rained every day, but never all day. No wonder it is so lush and beautiful!!!

Besides the wedding, one of our highlights during our week there, was when we took the adult kids, Ashlee, Daniel, Maria, and Joseph to go swimming with the Dolphins.

The boat we went on was run by Dolphin Journeys www.dolphinjourneys.com. Our host, Captain Nancy, had a wealth of information to share and we felt very safe on her boat. It was more intimate than larger excursions as they used a cabin cruiser that carried 6 people plus the Captain and her helper. So, you have the option, like us, of renting the boat for just your family or friends.

We also went to a Luau at the Sheraton which was awesome. The show, the food, and the drinks were fantastic!!!

One day Jeffrey and I took our grandson's to the other side of the Big Island to a town called Hilo. There we went to a small local zoo but the highlight was a little public park that the locals frequent. It has a cove to the east end where very large sea turtles like to come up to the people in the water. The fine is $25K if you harass or touch these protected turtles. Luckily, they don't go after folks when it's the other way around.

I was holding my 4 year old grandson, Conner, when I was goosed by one of the turtles and got caught in his fin as he swam right by me. Walking forward did not work so I twirled out away from him.

They are very curious and they will come up to you just to check you out like they did our Grandson, Austyn. It climbed part way up on a rock as Austyn was standing on shore to check him out. Jeffrey put pictures of the Turtle on the last page.

Jeffrey and I hope you all had a wonderful, healthy summer and we wish for you fun filled Holidays.

Much Love,

The ferocity of events occurring in your world in present time is called, "The Quickening". This advanced growth affects all facets of life and facilitates the continued process of your evolution. You could liken it to the beginning of Kindergarten and progressing through each grade until High School is accomplished and a diploma received. This is the simplest method of explanation; as you are, in a classroom setting, learning by what sits before you and what resides within you.

You provide a service and assist in the quickening by the choices you make, which determine variable paths, with the end results affecting the whole. We recommend listening to the subtleness of your internal guidance, as there is no greater source that consistently offers the purity of wisdom and grace in your life's journey

During transitional phases, dense thoughts, emotions, etc. must be purged for movement forward. Developments that you are witnessing on a daily basis are part of the cycle of growth, which are ongoing and have been since the conception of life. The media presents rhetoric without factual substance, to enhance their ratings and/or control of an agenda, while creating a flurry of fear and division among the populace. When listening to broad based commentary we ask that you be open to the possibility that the majority, though not all, of their "information" is opinions and manipulation rather than facts.

*We Wish You Blessings of Triumph in Your Personal Path

Aloha! Here's a taste of our Big Island Adventure.

If it looks like these two were having a lot of fun (yes that's Diane and I), we were. And so were 3 of my favorite women in the Universe, daughters Maria and Ashlee and, my Diane. This picture is very special to all of us.

This was a side yard of the Villa, where these fashion models did a wedding shoot.

OK so it was a real wedding, and a beautiful one at that.

View as we headed South near Pawai Bay to go snorkeling, with six adults crammed up on the bow, the ride was half the fun.

BIG DANG TURTLE!
He Liked Austyn, swam over and climbed up to say Hi.
Later he swam out to goose Diane and Conner, and visit some other swimmers
