Welcome

FROM DIANE

Hello :-),

As we start the New Year there has been a lot of weather events across the globe including where we live. We have been in a drought for years and El Nino is a blessing for the health and sustained life of our forest. The pine beetles have taken over the pines trees because of their compromised immune systems. We are not the only ones that require keeping our immune systems healthy as Serione' has stated in previous newsletters.

Last year went by extremely fast and it was the year of mirrors. We definitely experienced a share of this in our household and have learned a great deal regarding steps of action for a favorable outcome. As well as, accepting ourselves for where we are in our growth process and the patience as our path unfolds and reveals the next phase. The most important thing to remember is that a mirror standing before you is an indicator to acknowledge it, accept it and take steps of action for a favorable resolution. Mirrors are a blessing and serve as a reminder of stagnation/growth and where we are headed on our current path.

We are really looking forward to this year and I feel that it presents a year of expansion in self awareness with ample experiences that require situational choice for what we are in the process of manifesting. Put simply since it seems that some of those words were channeled (It appears the message is for Jeffrey and I). Our desire is to move to Oregon so that we can be closer to family. We are addressing patience and it is not like we haven't been through this before with all the guided moves that we have made. The difference being, this time it is for us so you might say we are attached and that has to be tempered. The move always happens when the timing is right.

Jeffrey and I wish you a joyful, abundant and healthy New Year

Much Love,

Diane

As the energies of the old year trickle out of existence and the new ones filter in you will witness the slumber subsiding and your internal drive stimulated. It is a year of magnetism, for whatever can be imagined and allowed will become a plausibility of your life. The key is to show up (put energy toward), allow (all possibilities) and flow (flexibility) with opportunities that are presented, while detaching from the how and when. Many options are abandoned because the brain controls the ways and means of reaching your destination due to "narrow mindedness". Are you open to the possibility of the unknown's providing a rewarding outcome other than what your brain can perceive? Patience and perseverance is called for as your path unfolds.

The body's vulnerabilities will be apparent as this year offers internal duality. Fight or Flight represents vacillation between the analytical mind and your essence. As you resist stepping out of your comfort zone gentle nudging with incremental increases of discomfort will be administered until you move forward. Building the strength of your own foundation creates ease and grace on your life's journey with ultimate success. What shall you choose?

Economic weakness is due to inept leadership that has been propagating worldwide. The effect of fear is decimating upon your countries due to the rise of power and corruption, within government entities and the general electorate. This out of control momentum is from a lack of participation within the populace. Your magnetic year will deliberately manifest the overall consensus of the whole and reflect itself back to you fiscally.

*We Wish You Deliberate Clarity in Establishing Your Foundation of Ultimate Success,
